

Contents

Introduction	Page 8
1. The Music Licensing Business	Page 10
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- What is music licensing?- The benefits of music licensing- Songs and composed scores- Writing songs for films- Soundtrack albums- Music libraries- The Need for independent music
2. What music gets licensed?	Page 24
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Music and the Emotions- The role of music in the media- Original songs- Cover songs- Music Clearance
3. Identifying the decision makers	Page 35
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Music Supervisors- Music Editors- Music Production companies- Music Publishers- Agents, Managers and Lawyers- Third Party Licensing Companies

4. Developing contacts and relationships Page 49

- Changing mindsets
- Prospecting
- Research projects
- Understanding 'customer needs'
- Approaching new contacts
- Work where you live
- The force of habit
- Dealing with criticism

5. Know your markets Page 64

- Advertising
- Film
- TV
- Video games
- Branding
- Corporate communications

6. Getting your music heard Page 78

- Making a good impression
- Who are you?
- Submitting your music
- Credits
- Music submissions in the 'Digital Age'

7. Music license agreements Page 89

- What is a 'license'?
- Exclusive and Non-Exclusive agreements
- Getting it in writing
- Short and long form agreements
- Blanket licenses
- Most favoured nations clause
- Work for hire
- Understanding jargon

8. Protecting your music Page 103

- Band agreements
- Understanding copyright
- Copyright infringement
- Sampled content
- Public domain

9. Getting paid Page 112

- Income from music
- The value of talent
- Understanding music budgets
- Festival licenses and step deals
- The music industry and royalties
- Performing rights organisations

10. Summary Page 128

11. Resources Page 131

- (i) Performing Rights Organisations
- (ii) Sample Music Cue Sheet
- (iii) Typical TV Sync License Agreement
- (iv) Top Tips To Success

12. Glossary Page 139

13. About The Author Page 143